Greater Indian One-horned Rhinoceros

Kaziranga: Indian One-horned Rhinoceros

Post-tour Extension to Ultimate Tiger Experience

6 Nights/7 Days

Kaziranga is a 430 square kilometer National Park consisting of large grasslands and tall elephant grass interspersed with evergreen forests, floodplains, shallow lakes and reedbeds. The park is bordered by the mighty Brahmaputra River to the north and Karbi-Anglong hills in the south. On a clear day the snowy cap of Mt. Kangchenjunga, third highest mountain in the world, and the highest peak in India, which lies on the northern side of the Brahmaputra River is visible from Kaziranga. This combination of diverse habitats is very unique, and offers species of mammals, birds and reptiles, which are only found in Himalayan Foothills and also in Rainforests of southeast Asia.

This uniqueness has earned Kaziranga, as a 'Biodiversity Hotspot' and is an area that is simply teeming with wildlife.

Kaziranga is by far, the best place in the world to observe our main target; the Greater Indian One-horned Rhinoceros. And on this tour extension safari, we may encounter as many as 30-40 individuals of these prehistoric-looking beasts. In addition, herds of wild Indian Elephants and wild Water Buffalo are a sight to behold, as are Barking, Hog and Swamp Deer and large sounders of Wild Boar.

With a very high density of prey for Leopards and Tigers, Kaziranga also has the highest density of Tigers in India, although with so much cover they are sometimes hard to see. We may even chance upon some of the more elusive residents such as Leopard Cat and Sloth Bear, while the Capped Langur, Assamese Macaque and Hoolock Gibbon, and Malayan Giant Squirrel can be seen relatively easily in the woodlands. Water bodies in the park need to be looked into carefully too, as we might spot Smooth Coated Otters hunting for fish.

Bird life at Kaziranga is tremendously diverse and features many rare or local species such as Bengal Florican, Lesser & Greater Adjutant Storks, Great and Oriental Pied Hornbill, Spot-billed Pelican can be seen in the park while on safari. Grey Headed, Lesser and Pallas' Fish Eagles are often seen fishing by these water bodies alongside the many Ospreys here. One of the most prominent reptiles here is the King Cobra, which are occasionally viewed from our vehicle.

Day 2, Transfer to Kaziranga National Park:

After breakfast, we'll proceed to the airport and board our 2.5 hour flight to Guwahati. Upon arrival we'll meet the drivers who will be waiting for us, and then drive to Kaziranga. The drive lasts about 4.5 hours, and the road traverses through beautiful countryside, villages and towns, offering us great insight into Indian village culture and bustling town life. We'll enjoy a traditional Indian lunch at a restaurant along the way, and upon arrival at our lodge, we'll have time to unpack and rest before dinner.

Our hotel will be Infinity Kaziranga, a small lodge with 15 air-conditioned rooms, each with its own private deck. Basic in structure, the rooms ensure proper comfort and amenities and each overlooks the garden/pool area with a high diversity and numbers of birds. The breakfasts, lunches and dinners are served in the common dining area (enclosed) with a beautiful view of trees and the pool, in a buffet service setup. The lodge is located about 15 minutes' drive from Kaziranga's central zone, 20 minutes from eastern zone, and 30 minutes from the western zone.

Day 3, 4, 5, One-horned Rhino and wildlife safaris:

We'll return to the lodge each day for lunch and refreshing ourselves, and then embark on our afternoon safaris, each of which also lasts roughly 3 hours.

Kaziranga's tourism area has been divided into 3 zones. The central zone is the closest to our lodge, while the eastern and western zones are about 20 minutes' drive in opposite directions. We will take full advantage of our time on safaris, and focus getting the best sightings and photos of Indian One-horned Rhinos, Indian Elephants, Buffalos, Smooth-coated Otters, Hog Deer, Swamp Deer and quite possibly a troop of Hoolock Gibbons or a Tiger! Kaziranga National Park is also very well known for great bird life, and offers wintering migratory species (in season) and quite a lot of endemic residents. On our final afternoon we'll make a special trip to the Brahmaputra River to experience the endangered Ganges River Dolphin.
